The cost of delegate places for RCHs is being subsidised by NARCH and in order to simplify administration, we are not offering early bird discounts this year, but our prices are much lower than in previous years, to reflect the current economic climate.

Please note we do not issue tickets, but you will receive a confirmation e-mail from us, adding your name to the delegate register, together with the full programme details.

Your attendance at this event will be worth 7 hours CPD, with CPD certificates available for collection in person at the end of the day.

The cost is £45 for RCH’s and £65 for non RCH’s and the links to Pay Pal can be found on the Recent News section of the NARCH Homepage.
